Ritsumeikan University is a leading comprehensive private university with over 100 years of history. We offer English-based programs including dual/joint undergraduate degree programs in which students can earn bachelor's degrees from both Ritsumeikan and partner universities abroad.

Ritsumeikan pioneers new English-medium undergraduate programs utilizing well-developed educational resources, alongside established undergraduate, masters, and doctoral programs. Today, more than 37,000 students study and conduct research across campuses in Kyoto, Osaka, and Shiga. Additionally, the university hosts 3,028 international students from 80 countries and regions, ranking third among Japanese universities in terms of international student population.

Currently, the University offers 5 English-medium undergraduate programs in Global Liberal Arts/ Asia-Pacific Affairs, International Relations, Policy Science, and Information Science and Engineering.

Challenging the norm for English-language based programs, Ritsumeikan has made dual/joint undergraduate degree programs, in which students can earn bachelor's degrees from both Ritsumeikan and a partner university abroad. The first between Japan and the US, the unique Joint-Degree Program with American University in Washington D.C. explores International relations from multiple perspectives through a comprehensive and fully engaged curriculum that spans the Pacific Ocean. Further, enhancing its global collaborations, Ritsumeikan established a Dual Degree Program with the Australian National University within the College of Global Liberal Arts. This pioneering program delivers two degrees across two continents in four years, covering a modern liberal arts curriculum and a highly developed international relations curriculum.

Located in western Japan, Ritsumeikan has campuses in Kyoto, Osaka, and Shiga, three regions that are close, yet distinct. The English-medium undergraduate programs are offered in Kyoto and Osaka. Kyoto is the ancient capital of Japan, with 17 world heritage sites within 10 km of the Kinugasa Campus. Kyoto is known as a student city, with 10 percent of the population identifying as students. Osaka is western Japan's largest city and the center for business in the region. Situated 20 minutes by train from both Kyoto and Osaka city centers, students at the Osaka Ibaraki Campus have excellent access to both the traditional charms of Kyoto, and the vibrant metropolis of Osaka.

Since its founding in 1897, Kyoto University has been dedicated to furthering higher education and fostering an atmosphere of free academic exchange in the historic city of Kyoto, a center of traditional Japanese culture.

Kyoto University is comprised of 10 faculties, 18 graduate schools, 12 research institutes, 27 centers and other organizations. Approximately 3,000 of the university's 22,600 students hail from overseas. With students from approximately 110 different countries and regions, the university's campuses boast a rich cultural diversity.

Kyoto iUP (Kyoto University International Undergraduate Program) is a 4.5-year international scholarship program comprising a six-month preparatory course followed by four years of undergraduate study. A key feature of the program is that no Japanese language proficiency is required at the outset, as the program provides an intensive Japanese language component. Admission and tuition fees are exempted, and students have a chance to receive a monthly merit-based scholarship of up to JPY 120,000 for the 4.5 years of the program. Upon graduation, they are awarded a bachelor's degree in their selected major.

Application information for Kyoto iUP October 2025 enrollment

  - Faculty of Education
  - Faculty of Law
  - Faculty of Economics
  - Faculty of Science
  - Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences
  - Faculty of Engineering
  - Faculty of Agriculture

In Kyoto city, students can learn about Japanese culture and history in everyday life. As university students account for approximately 10 percent of the Kyoto city's population, the city is extremely convenient for students, with many restaurants and stores for students as well as lower living expenses compared to other big cities in Japan. The city is also blessed with an abundance of nature and so compact that the residents can go anywhere on a bicycle.

SFC is located about 90 minutes from central Tokyo. Surrounded by nature, campus gives you the luxury of studying while always being aware of the four seasons. Cherry blossoms herald the spring, lush new green signals the start of summer, foliage paints the campus with autumn colors in the fall, and on clear days in the winter, snow-capped Mt. Fuji makes an unforgettable appearance. Students at SFC can enjoy a safe and peaceful campus life not available to students in the city. They relax on the lawn between classes, go jogging around campus, and meditate while watching ducks in the campus pond.

As the Japanese magazine specialised in global education, Spring is excited to feature the stories of high-achieving Singaporean/Asian students who chose to study in Japan.

Okayama University, as one of the top national universities in Japan, has been appointed to implement the "Global Network Project to Promote Study in Japan (ASEAN Regional Office)" by MEXT. We disseminate useful information about universities, scholarships etc.

Okayama University has been appointed to implement the "Global Network Project to Promote Study in Japan (ASEAN Regional Office)" by the Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT), building on the successful implementation and achievements of the previous phases. We promote Study in Japan by 1) providing useful information about studying in Japan, universities, and scholarships through SNS and our events, 2) offering FREE consultation by professional study in Japan coordinators, and 3) holding variety of seminars and fairs (including mock-lectures, information on career in Japan, and students experience talks) to Singapore and ASEAN students.

- Okayama University is a comprehensive university, which has 10 undergraduate schools, 1 international program, and 7 graduate schools. Okayama University has a 4-year bachelor's program called "Discovery Program for Global Learners (GDP)" that can be completed entirely in English.
- GDP accepts 60 applicants per year (around 25 from Japan, 35 from overseas) to embrace diversity.
- GDP is an interdisciplinary program that students can study a wide range of disciplines in social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences.
- Students with advanced Japanese proficiency also have an option to take courses in Japanese in other faculties at Okayama University.
- Students develop a personalized study plan that combines courses from different disciplines and fits their individual academic interests and future goals.
- The application for intake April and October 2025 will start in early October 2024.

Japan has beautiful four seasons, and you can enjoy each season in terms of food, sightseeing, history, culture, etc. Okayama, which has a perfect mixture of urban and nature sites, is located between Hiroshima and Kobe with easy access from Tokyo or Osaka. You will find convenient transportation of bus, train, taxi, or bicycle between the university and Okayama Shinkansen bullet train station. You can appreciate the delicacy such as peach and grape thanks to the moderate climate called "the Land of Sunshine". Students can live comfortably, and tuition and living costs are much affordable in Japan, especially in the regional cities like Okayama compared to western countries.
